Letter from the Vicarage

John Stott comments on the pre-Raphaelite artist, Holman Hunt's painting of, "The Shadow of Death" as follows:

"It depicts the inside of the carpenter's shop in Nazareth. Stripped to the waist, Jesus stands by a wooden trestle on which he has put his saw. He lifts his eyes towards heaven and the look on his face is one of either pain or ecstasy or both. He also stretches raising both arms above his head. As he does so, the evening light streaming through the open door casts a dark shadow in the form of a Cross on the wall behind him, where his tool-rack looks like a horizontal bar on which his hands have been crucified."

The Cross - worn so casually today as a fashion accessory - the Symbol of the Christian faith was probably, (per John Stott) the most cruel of death ever practiced, for it deliberately delayed death until maximum torture had been inflicted.

Yet it has become the universal symbol of Christianity. Why is the Cross so central to our faith?

Why for example can we sing at Easter, the hymn of Dr Isaac Watts, (the famous Congregationalist minister),

*"When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride."*

Probably the popularity of the Cross goes back to the first Christian Roman Emperor, Constantine the Great, who, (according to the historian Eusebius), at the crucial battle of Milvian Bridge saw a cross in the sky and the words, "in hoc signo vinces" (conquer by this sign).

Why should a form of degrading torture mean so much to the Christian? For as St Paul puts it the, "message of the Cross" is foolishness to the ordinary man (1 Cor 1:18).

For me the Cross reminds me that Christ and not me is the centre of my faith. The Cross reminds me that I cannot get to know God, other than coming through Jesus and his death.

I read this interesting story the other day:

A martial arts student was meeting with his master and teacher at a table, having tea. The student said to his master, "I've learned all you have to teach me about defending myself. I want to learn one thing more now. Please teach me about the ways of God."

The master took the tea kettle and started pouring the student's cup full of tea. Soon the cup was full and began to spill over onto the saucer. But the master continued to pour the tea until it spilled over the saucer and then onto the floor. The student finally said, "Stop, stop, the tea is spilling over. The cup can't take any more."

The master then looked at the student and said, "You are so full of yourself that there is no room in your life for God. It is not possible for you to learn the ways of God until you learn to empty yourself."

The Cross reminds me that I have to empty myself to know God.

On the Day of Pentecost in Acts 2, we see the first great revival in the church. 3000 people were added to the church in one day. The Holy Spirit poured into them and upon them and they were changed people.

But note the first verse, "When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place (New King James Bible).

I like the term, "with one accord", because it shows a unity. It doesn't mean that the church didn't have its differences, but they had one purpose that day and that was to seek God. They put their differences behind them to the greater good. They emptied themselves of their petty egos and jealousies and so were open for the Holy Spirit to fill them.

It is only when the church is of one accord that we will see growth in our churches.

Yet sadly it is the bickering and backbiting that cause our churches to die.

We can put up as many crosses and crucifixes on the walls of our Churches as we like, yet if we, as the people of God, haven't learnt to empty ourselves and allow God's Holy Spirit to fill us, it is all in vain.

We end up put people off finding the very Jesus they profess to believe in. Wasn't it ironic that it was Bible believing conservative evangelical Christians in South Africa during the British rule that put Mahatma Gandhi off Christianity, because of their racist attitude towards him - even though he was attracted to Jesus and his teaching? What a loss to the Church of Christ.

Yet the Church is called to do one thing and that is to make disciples. The only way we will make disciples of others is to empty ourselves, to allow Christ to take over our lives.

May we make Isaac's Watt's second verse our prayer this summer;

*"Forbid it Lord, that I should boast
Save in the Cross of Christ my God
All the vain things that charm me most
I sacrifice them to his blood"*

Tilney All Saints News

I suspect that wherever you go in the world, there's very little that compares to the beauty of an English summer's day. I'm not quite sure what makes it so special. There are plenty of other places in the world that are just as pretty. Perhaps it's because the rain keeps everything so green and fresh. Perhaps it's the uncertainty of never quite knowing what the weather is going to be like that makes a lovely summer's day seem so perfect.

It always seems a little strange to me whenever I've visited a hot country that the weather is so predictable. This is fine for a two or three week stay but I think

I might get a little bored eventually if I lived there.

We've had a few warm days recently and the garden has burst into life. I was thinking about this and it occurred to me that people are a lot like the garden plants. They need the encouragement of warmth and love to bloom successfully. If we could all spare a little interest and concern for someone else, perhaps we could all blossom and really become aware of the many gifts we have. We might even have the courage to develop them.

While we should never give insincere praise, we can surely be generous in encouraging others. We must never forget that while we are developing our own abilities (and sometimes this can be a painful process), there will be others doing the same. We shouldn't resent them if they seem to achieve more than we do ourselves, we should celebrate with them and be pleased for them.

I'm sure we've all met unpleasant, bitter individuals who never have a kind word to say to or about anyone. I try to tell myself that perhaps it's because they've had some terrible tragedy in their lives, although I know many people who have endured truly awful things, yet it hasn't shrivelled their soul. It's tempting to turn away from them and keep out of their way.

Alternatively we could try greeting them with a welcoming smile; showing interest in them; praying for them. The first time we get a little uncertain smile in return will make it all worthwhile.

The group at Tilney All Saints is thriving. We are learning to share experiences and insights with one another. It takes courage to share thoughts and feelings with each another, but everyone has something to offer. I am fascinated to hear about other people's experiences, and I learn something new almost every week.

Newcomers are always welcome to join us, as are children - who can either join in the service or explore the children's corner. We may not be everyone's, 'cup of tea' but you might like us. You will always be welcome, and you could meet some new friends. You may also get to meet God if you are especially blessed.

We have moved our regular service time to 10.30am and this seems to be working out well.

Mid-week service:

Every Wednesday morning at 9.30am, I perform a mid-week service of Holy Communion in the Lady Chapel of Tilney All Saints Church. It's a wonderful opportunity to take some time away from the demands of day to day life and draw closer to God in this gentle service of thankfulness. Please consider coming if you are able to. Occasionally I can't be there so if you've ever turned up & I'm not there, I do apologise. There are large red books of, 'Daily Prayer' in the Lady Chapel so you can always use these if I'm unable to be there.

Dates for you Diary:

We had some more donations for Water Aid's 'Jars of Tears' campaign, which brought the final total to £75. Thank you once more to everyone who took part.

7th July, 10.30am: a more informal service with hymns, prayers, readings & discussion with refreshments to help us along!

14th July, 10am: United Benefice Service at Terrington St John.

21st July, 10.30am: Church Family Service. A warm, friendly service with more structure than the 'Informal Service'.

28th July, 10.30am: A service of Holy Communion.

God bless & hope to see you there!

Tilney All Saints Village Hall News

This year's Annual General Meeting will be held in the Hall on Thursday 27th June, starting at 7.30pm. All villagers and hall-users are very welcome. We would love to hear your views on our work this year and if any villagers would like to put themselves forward for membership of the Committee, please come along and do so.

Fitness addicts and anyone wishing to just tone up and/or lose weight may be interested in the new Sunday morning class - 'Bounce & Burn' led by Zoe. This involves working out on mini trampolines and Zoe says it's suitable for anyone, regardless of their level of fitness. Class starts at 9.30am in the Hall and it is advisable to book with Zoe first although, as the class is not yet full, 'walk-ins' should find a space. Why not give it a try? All you have to lose is some fat!

Hall users will be pleased to hear that plans to re-surface the Hall car park are now well underway. Quotes are coming in and we are looking into ways of financing the work. Watch this space!

Quiz Night on Feb 22nd was a success. It would have been nice to see more people there but those who came seemed to have an enjoyable evening. We hope to repeat the event in a few months' time.

A Plant Sale was held at the Hall on Saturday April 27th. Although the weather was foul and we had to stay indoors, it was well attended and raised a few pounds for the Car Park fund.

At the time of writing, the Afternoon Tea is due to be held on Saturday 25th May. A report on that will be in the next edition.

New Thursday Club. Are you looking for an interesting way to spend a winter afternoon? There is a move to start a Thursday Club, in our Hall, with activities ranging from Art to Yoga (but nothing more strenuous!) probably on Thursdays from 2pm to 4pm.

It is envisaged that the group will start in September. Inexpensive transport can be arranged if needed.

If there is something that you would like to see included, please get in touch with Audrey (see below) - you might be the essential person needed to make the group happen.

Audrey Wootton 01553 829603 or awootton059@btinternet.com

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Every 4 weeks the Mobile Library van comes to the village and stops outside the Hall. There are some important changes to the days and dates of the visits and we will, as usual, hold Coffee Mornings for visitors to the Library and for anyone else who happens to be passing. The most important thing to note is that the Library will now come on every fourth WEDNESDAY, and not Thursdays as before. Our Coffee Mornings provide opportunities to get out of the house and meet with others while enjoying a coffee or tea and home-made cake or biscuits. All this for only £1! See below for dates.

Terrington St John News

TERRINGTON ST JOHN VILLAGE HALL FUND

We the Village Hall Committee have decided to cease our activities to raise funds for the creation of a village hall for Terrington St John.

There are various factors that have prompted this decision as follows:

- A) The cost of building a suitable hall is prohibitive to comply with all requirements for a public building.
- B) The committee has been in existence since the Millennium and despite the very hard work of all both past and present monies raised nowhere meets or comes close to the cost of a building.
- C) Despite various moves to instil enthusiasm for village members to help or join the committee non have come forward.

The total funds raised over the period is just over £10,000 and applications were requested from all village organisations at the beginning of the year for total or part of the fund. Various applications were received, and all given serious consideration. It was unanimously agreed by all members of the committee that as the money was raised for the village of Terrington St John that all the fund be used for purchase of play equipment to be installed on the Playing field adjacent to the car park in Old Church Road where we hope that this will be used by all village residents. The funds have been passed to the Parish Council for the purchase of this equipment as they can reclaim the VAT thus using the fund to the full.

I, as current Chairperson, wish thank all members of the committee both past and present for all their hard work over the past twenty years.
